

DEFINITION OF TERMS

TERM	EXPLANATION
Cottage/Villa	Refers to an establishment, characterized by a cluster of lettable units for holiday accommodation with or without self-catering facilities. These include residential premises used for holiday making by owners, friends or relatives;
Lodge	Is an accommodation establishment located within or near natural habitat rich in fauna and flora
Motel	Is an accommodation establishment, located along a highway or motor way, catering mainly for motorists.
Restaurant	Is a commercial catering establishment offering an extensive range or specialized cuisine, where meals are served, usually on a flexible time arrangement, and includes such variations as café, coffee shop and similar outlets.
Safari/Tented Camp	Refers to accommodation establishment comprising mainly of permanent, semi-permanent and/or mobile (fly) tented accommodation facilities usually located close to or within a popular areas such as beaches, rivers, lakes, national parks, game reserves or forests.
Serviced Apartments	Are commercial establishments, offering accommodation in self-contained units, with or without self-catering facilities.
Town Hotel	Is an accommodation establishment located within or near an urban centre.
Vacation Hotel	Is an accommodation establishment located within or near a holiday attraction area and in which the majority of clients are holiday makers.