

Su Zhigang, Chairman of Chimelong Group Co., Ltd.

In 1989, Su Zhigang created the first company of Chimelong Group, Xiangjiang Seafood Restaurant, from scratch. In May 1994, Mr. Su formally entered the tourism business with the opening of Xiangjiang Hotel on Dashi Yingbin Road, Panyu District.

Through more than 20 years of hard efforts, Mr. Su has succeeded in building a super-sized comprehensive resort, Guangzhou Chimelong Tourist Resort, which now owns the largest number of top theme parks in China. Combining the functions of tourism, leisure and culture, the resort encompasses several world-class theme parks and high-end hotels, including Chimelong Paradise, Chimelong Water Park, Chimelong International Circus, Chimelong Safari Park, Guangzhou Crocodile Park and Chimelong Hotel. It is a “national cultural industry demonstration base” and one of the first tourist resorts to be given the status of 5A-class tourist attraction in China.

In 2009, under Mr. Su's leadership, Chimelong Group formally launched the Zhuhai Chimelong International Ocean Resort project. In March 2014, the world's largest ocean park - Zhuhai Chimelong Ocean Kingdom, the world's largest collection of golden prize winners of international circus competitions - Zhuhai Chimelong International Circus City, and China's largest ocean-themed hotel - Zhuhai Chimelong Hengqin Bay Hotel, which were all part of the first phase of the Zhuhai Chimelong International Ocean Resort, opened services to the public.
